BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTION

The Laura Secord Homestead offers an accurate restoration of the house in which the Secord family lived from 1803 to 1835. Knowledgeable staff in period costume, assist students in exploring the story of this remarkable Canadian heroine as well as the intriguing story of Ontario's past. Students explore the nature of heroism and the responsibilities of citizenship.

DESCRIPTION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

During the war of 1812, a brave woman set out on a perilous journey in the service of her country and stepped forever into the history and folklore of Niagara. Travel back in time to the lovingly restored Laura Secord Homestead and be enchanted by stories of her adventures and surroundings as interpreted by authentically costumed guides.
