BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTION

Lula Music and Arts Centre, a non-profit organization with the mandate to support Canadian world music through presentations, festivals and education offers enriching and challenging activities for students grade 7 to 12. Our immersive dance, music & storytelling workshops nurture language learning and cultural understanding. They are ideal field trips for French, Spanish and Portuguese language classes as well as world studies, music, dance, and physical education students. Activities are held at Lula Lounge a live music venue and restaurant, just west of the downtown core, that has been featuring music from around the world for more than ten years.
