ATTRACTION DESCRIPTION

Discover the connections between cultures and across time at the Aga Khan Museum, North America's first museum dedicated to the arts of Muslim civilizations. Set within a landscaped park, the Museum is a stunning home to historical and contemporary exhibitions, live arts and film programming, an exquisite Permanent Collection, and a vibrant educational program that reveals numerous links to the Ontario Curriculum.

DESCRIPTION OF EVENING ACTIVITY

Visit the Museum collections and all special exhibitions for free every Wednesday from 4-8 pm. And throughout the year, experience a range of ticketed evening events – from concerts to lectures, film screenings to theatrical performances – in our 340-seat auditorium and beautiful Bellerive Room. In warm months, enjoy varied activities in the Aga Khan Park, including movies under the stars and live arts performances. Or create your own private event in one of our stunning interior or exterior spaces!
