BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTION

Old Fort Erie was the first British fort built in what is now Ontario, Canada. During the War of 1812, the site was occupied by the American forces who used this strategic location as the base of their operations for the invasion of Upper Canada. It was also the site of the Siege of Fort Erie, the scene of the worst fighting in the history of Canada.

Located at 350 Lakeshore Road, Fort Erie.

DESCRIPTION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Our educational programme has been developed to provide an understanding of the significance of the War of 1812 for Canadian/American relations. Students actively explore daily life at an outpost in Upper Canada. The role of women in the army, relations between the common soldier and the upper class officer and the crucial part played by First Nations people in the War of 1812 are included. Demonstrations of drill & musket firing are also presented.
